2. [REDACTED] Accompanied [REDACTED] in a meeting with Doug Marvin, office of Senator Roman L. Hruska (R., Neb.), to discuss our problems with S. 2543, Amendments to the Freedom of Information Act, now before the full Judiciary Committee. Marvin stated that the bill will not come up for a vote this week and he felt it would probably not come up until the first executive session of the Committee after the Easter recess. (See Memorandum for Record.)

4. [REDACTED] Met with Frank Slatinshek, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, and briefed him using the 14 March 1974 General Counsel paper on conflict of interest and the DCI finding of 16 March 1974. Slatinshek had no official comment.

In response to his questions, I also discussed with him the press report of the court's decision in the Marchetti case and Jack Anderson's column this morning concerning, "Watergate Forces Retirement at CIA." I told Slatinshek that Charles Kane and [REDACTED] have been designated the Director and Deputy Director of Security.
